

2018 BASEBALL CAMPS

PHILOSOPHY

The Round Rock Express baseball camps offer big-league quality instruction on the fundamentals of the game of baseball. Express baseball camps range in ages and offer opportunities for all skill levels. We pride ourselves on providing high-level baseball instruction from knowledgeable and experienced coaches. Express camps aim to develop the complete ballplayer by not only focusing on the physical skill sets, but leadership and mental skills as well.

COACHING STAFF

Leading the staff is Chase Almendarez, who is entering his first year with the Express as the Amateur Baseball Coordinator. Chase played baseball at Round Rock High School, played junior college baseball and finished his baseball career at the University of Houston-Victoria. Other coaches include Cedar Ridge Head Coach Daryl Reeves and Pflugerville Weiss Head Coach Garrett Bivone who serve as lead instructors and bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the Express camps. Other area high school coaches and current college baseball player round out our staff.

Express camps also partner with the A-C-E Mentoring Program, which gives local high school baseball players the opportunity to further develop their skills on the field while at the same time serving the great community of Round Rock as mentors at our camps.

EQUIPMENT

Campers must bring their own equipment. Bat, glove, spikes (no metal cleats) and helmet. Catchers must bring their own gear for full day and overnight camps. Round Rock Express is not responsible for lost items.
